

Create an MVC Application using Visual Basic

Paul D. Sheriff

BUSINESS SOLUTIONS ARCHITECT, FAIRWAY TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

www.fairwaytech.com psheriff@fairwaytech.com

Module Goals

Create an MVC application

Bring in reusable class libraries

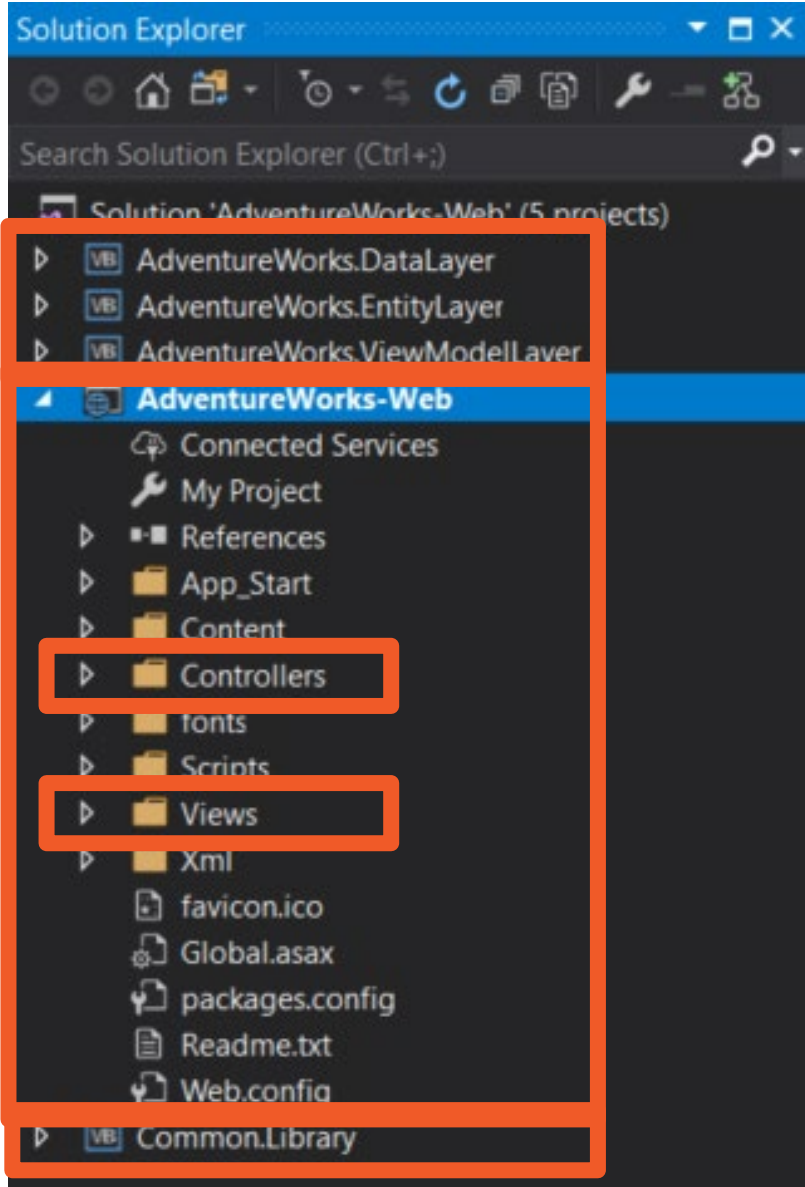

Create product list and detail pages

Create customer list and detail pages

Create MVC Application

Create MVC application

Bring in all other layers

- No changes to these

Create views and controllers

Demo

Create MVC application

Demo

Add more to MVC application

- Bring in \xml folder
- Add references
- Add entries to Web.config
- Fix up home page

Create Product Pages

Demo

Create product list page

Demo

Create product controller

Demo

Create product detail page

Create Customer Pages

Demo

Customer list and detail pages

Summary

Created an MVC application quickly

Reusable DLLs make creating new applications easy

Use overloaded methods

Keep UI-specific code out of view model

Course Summary

Visual Basic is easy to learn

VB provides for rapid application development

Take advantage of OOP

Use inheritance and overloading

Create reusable DLLs

I hope you enjoyed this course!

Paul D. Sheriff

Business Solutions Architect, Fairway Technologies, Inc.

www.fairwaytech.com

psheriff@fairwaytech.com

